SEDALIA, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 5, 1895.

PRICE,

A RED-HOT MEETING

Was That at the First M. E. Church Last Night.

"CIVIC" AND "ANTI-CIVIC"

A Meeting That Was Interspersed With Sensational Incidents from Start to Close.

A remarkable meeting, interspersed with sensational incidents, was held at the First M. E. church last night, lasting from 8 until after 10 o'clock.

It was called by the Civic federation and was advertised as a "mass meeting," although subsequent developments did not warrant it being designated as such.

The fact that it had been advertised as a mass meeting, however, caused a mixed audience to assemble, many, no doubt, having been attracted out of curiosity.

Rev. P. A. Cool, pastor of the church and president of the federation, presided, and the meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. F. V. Stevens, pastor of the First Congregational church.

President Cool then arose to explain the object of the meeting and the mission of the federation, when Mr. E. W. Greene, the merchant tailor, suggested the advisability of selecting a chairman. He placed in nomination Mr. W. F. Hansberger, but President Cool declined to entertain the motion, claiming that the federation had called the meeting and its officers would preside.

Half a dozen persons seconded Mr. Greene's motion, but all to no purpose, President Cool continuing to occupy the floor, despite cries of "Sit down," "Sit down."

After quiet had been restored, President Cool continued his remarks and explained the objects of the federation at length. It was a union of citizens, he said, to see that the law is enforced. It is not asking the enactment of additional laws, but the enforcement of those now on the statute books, and all law-abiding citizens were appealed to to assist the organization by giving it their influence and support in the interest of good government. The speaker then stated that he would introduce to the audience an old citizen of Sedalia, and Mr. J. H. Mertz, the druggist, was presented.

Mr. Mertz said that it was true that he had been a citizen of Sedalia for many years, but still he was not an old man, notwithstanding he saw before him people whom he had known before their marriage, and who now had sons who are recognized as town drunkards, owing to the work of the saloons in our midst. He then told of the "orgies" he had witnessed in Sedalia on the occasion of the visit of the St. Louis and Kansas City excursions. He had personally visited saloons that were run wide open that day, and the police and municipal administration were roundly criticized for what was referred to as a truly deplorable state of affairs.

Rev. B. V. Alton, pastor of the M. E. church, south, followed Mr. Mertz, and he, too, had a bit of personal experience to relate in regard to what had transpired on that now remarkable Sabbath—May 26, last. It was children's day at his church, and as he did not have to preach he had started out early in the forenoon for a stroll. In his wanderings he had found a number of saloons doing business the same as on a week day—in fact, he had found only three resorts that were not wide open. He had entered several of the places, and in one instance had taken a policeman with him, when the barkeeper ordered the blue coat out, exclaiming as he did so, "You ought to have more sense than to come here on a day like this." The divine spoke at some length, the whole tenor of his remarks being a condemnation of the municipal administration, without the use of names, but no criticism whatever of the state authorities.

Rev. J. S. Meyers, of the Christian church, was the third speaker. There was a smile upon his broad face as he bowed his respects to his audience, and for the next few minutes he commanded the rapt attention of his auditors, his Sam Jones style of talking catching even those who do not think Sedalia has any need of a federation. Mr. Myers not only paid his respects to the saloons, but also to Sunday base ball and a portion of the local press, which he claimed had never lost an opportunity to champion the saloons. Then the local administration again came in for a rap, on the same line with the speakers who had preceded him, and finally the church people who are too nice to attend ward primaries in the interest of good government were hauled over the coals in great shape.

No sooner had the divine taken his seat than a score of voices cried out, "Hastain," "Hastain," and the chief executive of the city promptly responded. He had been seated in the rear portion of the auditorium, but proceeded half up one of the aisles, where he took his position, declining an invitation to move to the front.

If his honor was in the reverse of a pleasant humor it is not surprising. While he had not been singled out personally by any speaker, he realized that nearly the entire criticism of the evening were directed at him and his administration, and without delay he proceeded to play for even, the result showing that he was fully equal to the emergency.

He began by saying that he had no words of condemnation for the federation, and all that he asked was that they "tote fair." He had been absent from the city on the Sabbath that was alleged to have been desecrated so grossly and did not know what had transpired, but if all that was alleged was true he hoped the federation would investigate the honorable gentleman who had officiated as chief executive during his absence. "Had I been present, however," continued his honor, "I can say that I would not have been like one clergyman of the city, guilty of going around with a cigar in my mouth, spying into the saloons to ascertain whether or not they were doing business."

The speaker said it was a little remarkable that the city authorities should come in for all of the condemnation, while the state authorities escaped without so much as a brief reference to them. If the law had been violated, then the state officials were equally guilty with the city officials. Referring to Sunday ball playing, his honor stated that the state supreme court had decided that it was not a violation of law, and he desired to know why the federation wanted to override the highest legal authority in Missouri.

While they were about it, his honor thought there ought not to be any partiality shown. "Why didn't the federation investigate the Cool college scandal?" asked Mr. Hastain, and the applause that greeted the interrogatory was of a full minute's duration. He then paid his respects to the Gazette for the past house publication of yesterday morning, and added that one of the gentlemen who had spoken during the evening had declared that he tore the paper up and would not permit it to enter his house and be perused by his wife and children. Some of the best people of Sedalia had complained to the postmaster about such a publication being permitted to go through the mails, and the speaker wanted to know why the federation did not investigate that.

The shots poured out by his honor were center ones, and he was liberally applauded by the larger portion of the audience, but at intervals the exclamations, "Shame," "For shame," were also heard.

His honor then read a series of resolutions that had been adopted by the St. Louis City Drummers' association, asking the representative business men of Sedalia to repudiate the criticisms placed upon their organization by the Gazette and Enterprise-Sentinel of this city, and a vote was asked at the hands of the audience as to whether or not they endorsed the articles complained of, but President Cool positively refused to submit the question and Mr. Hastain withdrew.

Instantly Rev. Alton arose and stated that he supposed he was the clergyman whom Mr. Hastain had referred to as having gone strutting down the street with a cigar in his mouth on Sunday to ascertain whether or not the saloons were open. "I plead guilty," said the divine; "but I assure you that when it becomes a violation of law to smoke on Sunday I will not do so, nor will the mayor have to send a policeman around to me on Saturday night to inform me that the next day will be the Sabbath."

President Cool then took a parting shot at the mayor for his reference to the "Cool college scandal," and the meeting was dismissed, it being the verdict of a large majority of the audience that the city had never before witnessed such disgraceful proceedings in the house of God.

DEAD BY THE ROAD.

What Caused His Death Remains a Mystery.

A train crew on the M., K. & T. railroad found a dead man beside their track three miles this side of Pittsburg, Kas., this morning, says yesterday's Nevada Post. He was lying in a ditch between the "Katy" tracks and the tracks of the Kansas & Texas Coal company, about 30 feet from either track. The train men reported the find to the coroner at Pittsburg, who investigated the manner of his death.

No bruises were found on his body indicating that he had been killed by a train and not a card or nine could be found on his person that would lead to his identification. Who he is, the manner of his death, where he came from or how he got where he was is a complete mystery, as not a single man of the large crowd of men who viewed the corpse had any recollection of ever having seen him before. He may be a tramp who had just wandered in there and died last night or a strange miner making his way to some of the many mines around Pittsburg. For the present at least his identity is a complete mystery.

Wickizer Was All Right.

Morris and Wickizer, pitcher and catcher for the Red Birds, played the Webb City Stars at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon, says Tuesday's Nevada Mail, and, owing to errors by several of the spectators that had taken up positions on the diamond, were defeated by a score of 24 to 11.

It was a gallant fight for two men

Won't Do It Again.

A man living on East Fourth street came home to dinner a few days ago and found his usually serene wife in a not very amiable humor. She had told him to stop at W. J. Letts' grocery and tell him to send down some green peas, new potatoes and coffee for dinner, but he went to the store, bought himself a "No Appeal" cigar and forgot all about his wife's order. When questioned he tried to persuade her that he had ordered them but she made him acknowledge that he neglected to attend to it. She said she knew that must be the case for Mr. Letts never failed to deliver the goods when ordered. "Good Goods, Low Prices and Prompt Delivery" is his motto.

to make against nine, and if they had had a little assistance there is no question but there would be sorrow in the Webb City camp today.

The visitors put up one of their old time games, full of life and ginger, and when a baseball club defeats them they'll have to do something besides sit on the bench and growl.

Taken to the Reform School.

Harry King, son of Policeman John King, was this morning taken to the State Reform school at Boonville, where he will remain eight years, or until he attains his majority.

The funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Margaret Stevens, whose death was chronicled in yesterday's DEMOCRAT, took place at McGee's chapel this afternoon.

DESIRE A DIVIDEND.

Meeting of the First National Bank Depositors Last Night.

A meeting of the defunct First National bank depositors was held last night, at which Dr. W. J. Ferguson was elected president and Major Wm. Beck secretary.

On motion, the president was empowered to select an executive committee of three members, whose duty shall be to wait upon Receiver Latimer to obtain such information as will show the present condition of the assets and liabilities of the defunct bank, and if no information can be obtained of the receiver, it shall be the duty of the committee to communicate with the comptroller of the currency at Washington.

Dr. Ferguson was made chairman of the executive committee. It was the sense of the meeting that thirteen months having passed in the receivership, needy depositors would be greatly relieved if a partial dividend would be ordered by the comptroller of the currency without further delay.

WILL DEFEND SEDALIA.

A Mass Meeting to Be Called for Tomorrow Night.

A number of prominent business men feeling that injustice has been done Sedalia by her critics and defamers are arranging for a mammoth mass-meeting to be held at the court house tomorrow night for the purpose of contradicting the false and misleading impressions that have been sent out and to defend the good name of Sedalia.

BEAT HIS WIFE.

Sequel to the Sensation of Early Yesterday Morning.

G. W. Beckner came to the city this morning and swore out a warrant against David Knight, a renter living nine miles southwest of Sedalia, who is charged with having brutally assaulted Mrs. Knight at an early hour yesterday morning.

Beckner, Knight and Mrs. Knight are the trio who caused such a rumormongering in the southern part of the city at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, as chronicled in last evening's DEMOCRAT. Beckner said today:

"I am not related to the Knights, as stated by one of the morning papers. I have been living with them for six months past, and last Monday we came to town to attend the tent show. All three of us drank considerable beer, and just after we had started home Knight and his wife got into a fight, while we were driving along the road. It was her cries that aroused so many people. He beat her up badly and drew a knife on me. Both of her eyes are black, as are also her cheeks, and I swore out a warrant for him today."

The paper was placed in the hands of Deputy Constable Barnett to serve, and he is expected to bring Knight to town some time this evening.

MR. HEARD'S CONDITION.

His Physicians Are Confident of His Early Recovery.

Prof. Chance last night received a letter from Mr. Heard under date of June 21. In the letter Mr. Heard states that he is improving, but not as rapidly as he had hoped; he is confined to his room and has been for three weeks; his rheumatism has left him, but his nervous system is shattered; his physicians, one of whom is a noted specialist, tell him that he is suffering from congestion of the spinal cord, resulting in a weakening of the nerves of the legs and feet, but that the case is not a severe one and that he will have regained his normal health in a few months. As soon as he is able to stand the trip Mr. Heard and his wife will go to the sea coast or some comfortable health resort for the summer. Mr. Heard is hopeful of speedy recovery and his friends should not be discouraged by sensational reports.

Roasted a Policeman.

A clerk in an Ohio street grocery store was before Recorder Bosserman this morning, charged with having violated a city ordinance by burning paper and straw in the street, but he was dismissed with a reprimand. The arresting officer, Bob Yopst, was then carried down by the court, the criticism being based on the fact that he had permitted Sunday saloons to remain open without being molested, while he had gone out of his way to arrest a boy who did not know that he was violating any law.

Missouri's Penitentiary Crowded.

A count of prisoners at the penitentiary yesterday showed a total of 2,201. This is five above the high water mark of last January. The shops are working to their utmost capacity and the cell buildings are crowded to suffocation. Only about 1,200 of the convicts can be utilized under the contract system, and many must be kept in comparative idleness.

Burial of Judge Carter.

The funeral service over the remains of Judge Jos. E. Carter was held at the Congregational church in Green Ridge at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. John W. Conner received a message this morning informing her of the death of her father, Mr. Koontz, at Fort Scott, Kas. She will leave for that point tonight.

Particulars of the death are furnished in the following dispatch from Fort Scott to the Kansas City Times:

F. M. Koontz, senior member of the retail grocery firm of Koontz & Sons, of this city, died of apoplexy at his store this afternoon. He was stricken some time last night, and today his store was broken into by friends, who apprehended that something had happened to him. He was found unconscious and lived but a short time. He came here recently from Holden, Mo. His son, F. M. Koontz, of Rich Hill, arrived on a special train from Yates Center ten minutes before his death. He was 63 years old.

Wm. Goetz and Ed Dunivant Will Fight for $100.

At last the principals in the approaching glove contest came together yesterday evening, and the articles for the fistic encounter between Ed Dunivant and Wm. Goetz were signed in the presence of witnesses, says the Jefferson City Courier.

The contest is for a purse of $100 and gate receipts, the winner to take all. The place for holding the contest has not been decided definitely as yet, but in all probability will occur in the opera house, or as the agreement reads, "within ten miles of the City of Jefferson." Time was given both men to train, and June 29 was finally agreed upon. The purse is up and both men mean business.

been branded with a "fraud order" and yet been denied a fair and impartial trial. Such proceeding is an outrage! If these men violated the law and conducted a lottery they should have been convicted. If not guilty they should have been given a chance to prove their innocence. But they have been refused the use of the mail and then denied a trial upon the very charge the government officials brought against them. It is a proceeding more worthy of Russia than of a government which is the servant of the people. It is an outrage that may be perpetrated upon any citizen, and yet under the ruling of the courts he has no redress—no right even to have a trial upon the merits of the case.

TIME TO STOP.

The unfortunate and unseemly scenes that were enacted in one of the churches of Sedalia last night are sufficient to convince conservative citizens that the time has arrived when passion, prejudice, personal animosities and mere pride of opinion must give way to prudence and common sense.

It is false and unjust to assume that everybody who does not subscribe to puritanical notions in regard to Sabbath observance are the friends of lawlessness.

This is so unjust and untrue that its continued assertion can but array the citizens of Sedalia into two hostile camps to annoy and injure each other.

To take a practical view of practical things, to make the best of humanity as we find it, to recognize that laws were made for the benefit of society and that the individual should be allowed the greatest liberty consistent with the public safety and comfort, does not make a man an advocate of lawlessness.

There are things in every day life that must be overlooked, society and organized government in the actual administration of public affairs must close its eyes to some things that even the strict letter of the law condemns, just as the wisest and strictest parent must occasionally be blind to technical violations of the parental authority.

As this paper has said heretofore, (and for the remark it has been unjustly misrepresented and maligned in anything else than a christian spirit) it is easy to enforce those laws which prohibit things that are crimes in themselves, but exceedingly difficult to enforce those ordinances that are directed against mere habits and customs that are only wrong because the letter of the law condemns them.

The DEMOCRAT believes that no good citizen favors unrestrained and uncured license to engage in practices and performances that become a nuisance, offensive to the public and an injury to the community.

But neither does this paper believe it is the part of good citizenship to denounce and vilify citizens and officials for refusing to entertain impractical ideas as to the enforcement of rules and regulations that experience has proved cannot be enforced to the letter without doing more real injury than they do good.

The scene last night was enough to cause regret in the heart of every loyal Sedalian, and if continued will result in untold injury to the community.

There ought to be, and there is, common ground upon which good citizens of all shades of religious belief can unite and stop this unseemly, suicidal strife!

Liberal-minded Sedalians do not desire, have not had, and do not defend lawlessness and crime.

But they do defend the good name of the city!

They do deny that Sedalia has become a hot-bed of vice and iniquity!

They do resent the attitude of those who seize upon the conditions which exist in Sedalia only as they exist in other towns, and parade those conditions as being exceptionally bad, and draw from them the conclusion that we are worse than the average of municipalities.

They do resent the tone of certain influences which arbitrarily and in a dictatorial way damn everybody who differs from them.

If we are to have a year of earnest effort for the city's upbuilding, the conservative business men must assert their influence and stop the process that tears down faster than others build up.

If we are a united commonwealth striving to extend our trade and industries, let's know it and go on with the work.

But if we are to have a campaign of crimination and recrimination; if business man is to be arrayed against business man; if citizen is to war with citizen; if our churches are to be made the battle ground of exasperated factions ready to fly at each other's throats, rather than the temples from which go forth the doctrine of "Peace on earth and good will to men!" then let the battle be fought to a finish.

But first count the cost.

BENTLEY AT NEVADA.

He Is Doing Good Work for "Missouri On Wheels."

M. G. Bentley, representing the Sedalia Board of Trade, is in the city, says the Nevada Mail, and desires to meet as many citizens as possible at the parlors of Hotel Mitchell this evening. He wants to present a plan of advertising the products and resources of Central and Southwest Missouri on wheels.

The plan is similar to that inaugurated by the state of California some years ago with such splendid results in the matter of attracting capital and immigration to that state. Mr. Bentley will explain the plan and show wherein it will be advantageous to our citizens to take part in the enterprise.

"There are to be three cars," said Mr. Bentley, "filled with exhibits which will be sent through the northern and eastern states. I wish to meet as many of your citizens as possible at the hotel this evening, when I shall explain the plan to their entire satisfaction, I am sure."

Some time ago I was taken sick with a cramp in my stomach, followed by diarrhea. I took a couple of doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy and was immediately relieved. I consider it the best medicine in the market for all such complaints. I have sold the remedy to others and every one who uses it speaks highly of it. J. W. STRICKLER, Valley Center, Cal.

EVERYBODY'S

Thermometer

The scale of noted events in the world's affairs is marked in degrees by the liberalizing energy in them. But this thermometer that marks the "rising" power of common sense fell by the wayside in rating the popularity of the act of capital removal. Now, while a terrible red hot "figger of figgers" is being manufactured to describe the good sense of it, Blairs' will temper their prices on the most desirable lines of Clothing, Hats and wear for Men and Boys so all can handle them and not get burnt.

You can swim in the floating power of our prices. Come and see the luck in fair play and common sense practices in trade at

THE BIG FIGHT.

It Will Take Place at Dallas, Texas, October 21st.

J. C. McNealus, the St. Louis Chronicle's Dallas representative, and a close friend of Dan A. Stuart, yesterday received the following telegram from Mr. Stuart, who is in New York:

"Corbett-Fitzsimmons glove contest articles all signed and the mill will take place at Dallas sure on October 21."

Before leaving Dallas for New York on Sunday, one week ago, Mr. Stuart said to Mr. McNealus: "The syndicate that is working for Dallas is composed of the wealthiest men in the city, and they are in close touch with the State Fair association."

"Glove contests in this state are legalized by law on the payment of $500 for a license."

"I have been working quietly for six months to secure this contest for Dallas and in my traveling east and west, have made two visits incognito to Washington, and there met in private the men on the inside of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons affair."

"The certified check for $41,000 and a few business-like words is worth more to convince men of one's business sincerity than all the newspaper notoriety one can get in advance of clinching a matter like this."

"I have made arrangements conditionally with all the railroads of the country to bring visitors to Dallas from Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Denver, San Francisco and practically the entire country at such low rates that the expense will be no greater than if they went to New Orleans or Jacksonville."

"The contest will take place in October on Drumm's day during the state fair, and at least 50,000 strangers will come to see it. I estimate that they will spend in Dallas at least $400,000."

MUST PAY $5,000.

An Important Opinion Filed by Judge J. B. Gantt.

Judge Gantt filed an opinion in the supreme court yesterday in a suit from Livingston county, which will prove of value to those interested in accident and life insurance.

One Meadows carried an insurance for $5,000 in the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California. He was killed by a tram of cars at Chillicothe while engaged in shipping some cattle. The policy contained a great number of conditions, exempting the company from liability for nearly every conceivable manner of accident.

The court holds that this is not equitable insurance, and judgment is awarded against the company. Negligence on the part of the insured person must be established by direct evidence; otherwise due diligence will be presumed to have been exercised.

A Happy Family.

The entertainment to be given by Prof. Gentry's happily family of intelligent ponies and brilliant dogs in this city under their tent on Third and Quincy streets, Friday and Saturday nights, June 7th and 8th, matinee Saturday, 2:30 p. m., is indeed a happy family. They are handsome, intelligent, educated, and they will make you laugh. They will surprise you. Their every action is wonderful. They perform what no other company of animal actors ever attempted. They have appeared in every city on the American continent before millions of the best people in the land. They have amused more children than any other one attraction in the world. They are particularly fond of children. They love candy, apples and all kind of sweetmeats.

Still Another Addition.

The Dorman tract of seventy-eight acres, in the southern portion of the city, which has been sold to

of pill gives you a feeling of horror when you see it. Like the "blunderbuss" of a former decade, it is big and clumsy, but not effective. In this century of enlightenment, you have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver troubles in the most effective way. For Indigestion, Constipation, Bilious Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headache, nothing has been found to equal these pills of Dr. Pierce's invention.

Mr. SAMUEL BAKER, Esq., of No. 151 Summit St., Philadelphia, N. J., says: "There is nothing that can compare with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, as I have done more good than any other medicine I have ever taken."

an Iowa syndicate for $25,000, is to be platted at once. The west forty acres will be made an addition to the city. Streets will be graded, granitoid walks constructed through the grounds and granitoid walks will be built from the street car line to the addition. Water mains will also be run through the grounds. The gentlemen from Iowa have strong financial backing, are men of wealth themselves, and Sedalia is proud that she has thus been enriched by their presence.

MUST NOT WE BELIEVE

What We See; If So, Then Let Us Have Faith

In the Magnetic Healer, Dr. C. H. Carson, whose wonderful performance we witnessed last evening at the opera house, where in a few seconds' treatment to some of the most difficult cases that ever baffled the skill of the best doctors in the land was benefited and no doubt cured in some cases by the laying on of hands of Dr. C. H. Carson, who performed the most marvelous effects ever known to science in ancient or modern history, and was witnessed by a well-filled house composed of some of Sedalia's best citizens, who knew the unfortunate patients that were treated upon the public stage in front and plain view of everyone in the opera house. There was no dark cabinet, no hypnotism, no misversion, no deception—all was done in open view and the people that were fortunate enough to be present saw the most phenomenal exhibition of magnetic results of the great healing powers of this wonderful doctor, who received the applause of the audience after they saw the wonderful relief he gave each patient after he had given them only a partial treatment, which set the most skeptical to thinking and left no room for doubt in the mind of anyone that this gift is one divine and inspired by a supreme being, as every one of the many who were treated said that they were greatly benefited by this first treatment and returned to their homes feeling better and with more faith than they had when they left to visit the greatest famed magnetic healer the world has ever produced. Dr. Carson will remain a few days at the Kaiser hotel and will treat patients from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m.

A Strawberry Picnic.

The strawberry lunch picnic given by Mrs. J. N. Dalby to her Sabbath school class of young ladies, together with their gentlemen friends, last evening, was a delightful event. Following are the members of the class: Zippie McDougall, Corinne Warren, Mabel Thornton, Sadie McGowan, Daisie McGowan, Cootsie Miles, Fannie Fletcher, Lola Stevenson, Gertrude Barton, Jaell Gentry, Lulu Goodfellow, Effie Stevens, Irene Barnett, Lola Hoffman, Cleo Gold, Lillie Scow, Claudie Mercer, Cora Perdue, Ella Gentry, Nannie Gentry, Lucy Gentry, Fannie Smith, Emma Thomas, Bertie Morsman, Bessie Gold, Hattie Cooper and Susie Thompson.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

WESTMINSTER, Cal., March 21, 1894.—Some time ago, on awakening one morning, I found I had rheumatism in my knee so badly that, as I remarked to my wife, it would be impossible for me to attend to business that day. Remembering that I had some of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in my store I sent for a bottle, and rubbed the afflicted parts thoroughly with it, according to directions, and within an hour I was completely relieved. One application had done the business. It is the best liniment on the market, and I sell it under a positive guarantee. R. T. HARRIS.

County Court Adjourns.

County court adjourned last evening until the first Monday in July. In the matter of the petition of Samuel Snider for a bridge across Flat creek, the court made a proposition to the petitioners to build the bridge, provided the citizens interested donate $150.

The petition of D. A. Glass for a road in section 5, township 46, range 13, was approved by the court and the commissioner ordered to survey and work out the road.

City Hospital Meeting.

The ladies of the City Hospital society held a business meeting yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to improve the building. There are now three patients at the hospital. One of them, a little boy, underwent an operation yesterday at the hands of Dr. Heaton, who removed several necrosed bones from the little fellow's leg.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

A Negro's Assault On Mrs. Taylor Crawford.

Mrs. Taylor Crawford, wife of a young farmer living two miles north of the city, and daughter of Peter Dump, while riding alone in an open cart, one and a half miles north of the city, yesterday afternoon, was halted by a negro, who asked her to change a half dollar.

She replied that she had no change and attempted to drive on, when the negro made an assault upon her and tried to drag her from the cart.

A desperate struggle followed. Mrs. Crawford finally succeeded in getting away from the brute, after her clothing had been torn from her body. She drove to the city limits and gave the alarm. Search is being made for the negro, of whom a good description was obtained.

Would You Buy Tainted Meat

If it could be had, and were offered to the public at

One Cent Per Pound?

Of course you would not; you do not want such rubbish at any price for the initial saving would be swallowed up ten times by consequent doctors' bills—perhaps undertakers' bills.

Similarly, You should not buy clothing just because a merchant sells it cheaply. Price is only one consideration; quality, texture and workmanship are just as important. I quote no prices, but handle Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing of the highest quality, finest texture and most artistic workmanship, at prices as low as those of any honest competitor. Don't accept this on my say-so, call and see the goods.

RAILROAD RUMBLE.

The Boy Known Who Caused Wm. Thatcher's Death.

ONE ON A KATY "CON."

Items of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of "Democrat" Readers.

Exactly how poor Bill Thatcher, who was buried here this afternoon, met his death, the Clinton Democrat of last evening thus explains:

Thatcher was engaged in making a coupling, and held on to the brake staff at the end of the car. Without his knowledge, one of those small boys who are the pest of railroad men and who delight in fooling around cars, climbed to the top of the car on which the brakeman was hanging and kicked the ratchet loose.

The staff whizzed around rapidly, throwing Thatcher under the slowly moving car. An instant later he was crushed under the cruel wheels. As his cry of agony arose, the mischievous boy sneaked down and ran away. Those first on the scene asked how it happened and the injured man pointed upwards and said, "that fellow knocked the brake loose." No arrests were made, but the identity of the boy is known.

One on a "Katy" Conductor.

A good story is told on a popular M., K. & T. conductor by the Parsons Sun. He had been running on a freight train, but business became slack and the freight was pulled off, so he went into the "chain gang," which in railroad parlance means crews who have no regular runs, but are "first in, first out," for anything that comes up, following a rotation, from which came the name "chain gang."

A lady had been visiting here when the conductor had been running regular and became acquainted with him. She went away, but came back shortly after he had gone into the "chain gang." After inquiring of the friends she was visiting after her acquaintances, she finally asked, "And is Conductor still running train so and so?" "No," replied her friend, "he is on the 'chain gang.'" The lady turned white and said, "Why, how horrible. He seemed like such a nice man. Whatever in the world did he do to get sent to jail?" But the friend relieved her mind by explaining to her that "chain gang" on a railroad and in a jail were not synonymous terms.

Since he has parted with his moustache, Conductor Merrifield bears a close resemblance to the venerable Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis.

CATHOLICS DISMISSED.

The School Board Draws the Line in Kansas City, Kas.

Special to the Democrat.

KANSAS CITY, Kas., June 5.—Catholic circles are agitated deeply today. Last night the school board summarily dismissed all of the Catholics who have been teaching in the public schools. Satisfaction either by reinstatement or explanation was denied. The dismissed number five. They will fight the board's action. A. P. A.'s are declared to have influenced the action of the board.

WANTS TO BE EXECUTED.

A Convict in the Kansas Pen So Petitions the Governor.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 5.—Gov. Morrill yesterday received a letter from Taylor Cook, a life convict in the penitentiary, asking that his death warrant be signed and that he be executed.

This probably is the only case of the kind on record. Cook was convicted of wife murder in Osborn county six years ago and sentenced to be hanged. The death penalty in Kansas means imprisonment for life.

At the trial of the case Cook pleaded insanity, but the jury did not see it that way, and a verdict of guilty was returned. In his communication to the governor Cook says:

"Now, I will tell you some of the facts in the case. In 1888 I was adjudged insane in Lane county and sent to the asylum at Topeka. Dr. Eastman's testimony at my trial was that I was insane when I entered the asylum; that the trouble I had with my family caused the malady; that I would become insane were I again subjected to the trouble. I was subjected again and became insane. Then I slew my wife. When I was brought to the penitentiary I was placed in the insane ward, remaining there four years. For the last two years I have been in the crank gang. If I was responsible when I killed my wife I ought to have been hanged—if I was insane I ought to have been sent to the asylum. All I am going to ask you to do is to sign my death warrant and order the warden to hang me, or you will be responsible.

"If nothing is done in my case I will feel perfectly justifiable in taking my own life. Everything I see seems like boys' play, and I think the whole world is going crazy. Nine-tenths of the people ought to be in the insane asylum. I am an expert on insanity and know what I am talking about. If I and some others here were hung it would be an act of humanity and charity, if not of justice."

Governor Morrill will investigate Cook's case.

OLNEY WILL BE NAMED.

The Attorney General to Be Made Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—It is as good as settled that Attorney General Olney will be made secretary of state. Indeed it is said today that President Cleveland has already made the offer, and that it has been accepted, and the public announcement only waits the selection of a successor to Olney. This, it is confidently stated by those who have had the president's confidence in the past, will be either Judge Peckham or Hornblower of New York, whose rejection by the senate when appointed by the president of the supreme bench has not yet been forgotten.

Killed by Lightning.

John George Brickner, a farmer living seven miles east of Boonville, was struck by lightning Monday evening and instantly killed. He was building a barbed-wire fence during a storm, and, while he was holding to a piece of the wire, which had been strung, the lightning hit a post close by and ran down the wire, giving him a shock that killed him.
